FOOD FEST

‘We care’ is a project implemented under the Kerala Social Security Mission, Govt of Kerala for supporting people who suffered from various chronic diseases and are not covered under any other welfare projects. For the purpose for raising fund for this project and make an awareness among the public about ‘we care’, unit organized a food fest at the Payangadi bus stand premises. In this fest cadets sold snacks and sweet drinks prepared at their houses. The green protocol was observed in this fest and food items were served in banana leaves. People in the locality were very cooperative and many shop ownwers donated food items and money and extended full support for making this programme a great success. The programme was inaugurated by Ezhome Gramapanchayath Health and Education standing committee chairman P K Viswanathan master. Cadets collected Rs. 8000/- and handed over to we care account.
