

CO-OPERATIVE ARTS AND SCIENCE COLLEGE, MADAYI

AQAR – 2020-21

Re-Accreditation Cycle 2

CRITERION III -

RESEARCH INNOVATION AND EXTENTION

3.4.1 - Extension activities are carried out in the neighbourhoods community, sensitizing students to social issues, for their holistic development, and impact thereof during the year

As part of the "Telineerozhukum Navakeralam" project implemented by the state government to make the water sources of the state free of waste, Co. Operative Arts & Science College Madayi cleaned rock pool in adjacent area led by N. S. S. Coordinators Gatha Gokul, Nidin. M. S and Anjana. P.

1. N. S. S. "Pustakathanal" is a project led by the state office to establish vayana centers in public places with the aim of increasing the habit of vayana among the public. Co. Operative Arts & Science College Madayi N. S. S. Units 13 & 71 set up a book shed at Pazhyangadi Taluk Hospital. The books collected by the volunteers were collected by N.S. S. Program Officer Dr. Ramya. K. P handed over and taluk hospital civil surgeon Dr. Shahina Bai accepted them. The participation of NSS volunteers, hospital staff and visitors made the event a success .

Co. Operative Arts & Science College Madayi NSS Units 13 & 71, Pilathara Hope Charitable Trust jointly celebrated “World Environment Day” on 5th June 2022. Conducted an awareness class about “Environment and importance of environmental protection”. After the awareness class, soil and fertilizer required for planting saplings were collected

