An overview of the historiography of Kerala shows different kinds of researches, writings and interpretations of the region's history written by William Logan, Robert Ayoob and Acharya A.C. Narayana Iyer. Subsequently, K.M. Shamsud Din, K.M. Shamsud Din, K.M. Shamsud Din, K.M. These scholars and historians are known for their trend setting geographical contributions in their areas of research.

While following and at the same time diverging from the writing paths of investigation opened by these doyens of history, more there are new historiographical approaches using new and methodologies for the reconstructions and interpretations of Kerala's past. Anathapada History Club history, Archaeological Survey, Kerala History and many other appear as prominent areas of historical investigations.
