

CO-OPERATIVE ARTS AND SCIENCE COLLEGE, MADAYI

AQAR – 2020-21

Re-Accreditation Cycle 2

CRITERION III - RESEARCH INNOVATION AND EXTENTION

3.2 Innovation Eco system

The ecosystem of the college facilitates innovation that ranges from updating local knowledge to discovery-based research. Many students' centric activities were conducted during the year. The faculties are motivated and ample opportunities are provided to pursue innovative research ideas. Local knowledge transmission through initiatives like 'The Heritage Walk' of the History Department, the Talk on Kallen Pokkudan, orient the students and faculties about the research and innovation activities in the college and by which the students are sensitized. The faculties have been instrumental in facilitating a positive, research-friendly, and innovation-centric learning institution. The Eco-Diversity of Madayipara, surrounding the college, is further helpful in building knowledge about biodiversity and provides room for research.
