It includes a Certificate Course Coordinator, encouraging students to enroll in courses from various departments, external agencies, and the Swayam/NPTEL platform. All students must enroll in at least one course during their three-year graduation period. The course content should align with the college's mission and vision. Departments must delegate a Course Coordinator, follow the formal process for developing and approving courses, define admission criteria, communicate admission policies, specify course duration, and establish minimum qualifications and experience requirements.
